

X-LOGS

MFR: Probably Co-Operative Flint Glass Co., Beaver Falls, Pa.

YOP: Circa 1892-95

NAME: K5, p. 134

AKA: PRISM ARC (Metz1, p. 142)

REF: BRS, pl. 14 (wine in ruby-stained)

NOTE: Also known in opaque white. The assortment shown here from an 1892 wholesale catalogue points to Co-Operative as the maker of this previously unattributed pattern.

X.L.C.R.

See EXCELSIOR

Our "SENSATION OPAL" Assortment.

Regular "Quarter" Articles for the 10-Cent Trade.

The Now Popular Marble-Like Opal Ware Made Up in Artistic and Pleasing Shapes.

This beautiful ware is now "all the rage," and the articles we have selected to form this 10-cent assortment are among the most desirable of all tubic pieces. As we go to press this assortment is having a tremendous sale.

THE ASSORTMENT COMPRISES 2 DOZ. EACH OF THE FOLLOWING:

Footed Scalloped Comports—8-inch, beautiful scalloped and open work edge.

Sugar Bowls and Covers—Liberal size, fine finish. Very desirable.

Oblong Butter Dishes and Covers—Standing on four feet. Artistically beautiful.

.....Order here.

(Total of 6 doz. to package. Sold only by package.)

Price, 82c Doz.

X1—On the right of this 1891 assortment is a covered sugar in X-LOGS, which is probably a product of the Co-Operative Flint Glass Co., of Beaver Falls, Pa. The other two items in the assortment match items found in other wholesale catalogue groupings of Co-Operative products.

YELLOW VINTAGE FROSTED (Md2, pl. 57)

See AMBER-STAINED

YOKED SPEAR POINT (Md2, pl. 78)

See SWAG BLOCK

YOKED LOOP (BRS)

See SWAG BLOCK

YORK HERRINGBONE (Md1, pl. 45)

See SCALLOPED SWIRL